CHARLES SIMMS.

Gill Nets! Gill Nets!

To the Citizens of Washington, Frederick, and Montgomery counties.

AS the General Assembly of Maryland will sit in the course of a few weeks, I take the liberty of calling the attention of the people of the upper counties to the subject of Gill Nets; that all those who may agree with me in opinion, may unite in petitions to the Legislature to pass such laws as may effectually prevent the use of them hereafter in the Potomac. Since the introduction of these Nets into our waters, the people of the upper counties have experienced the most pernicious effects of this practice. It is a fact well known, that many persons at the last season, after leaving their homes, with their teams, at the most busy season of the year, and travelling, perhaps, from 50 to 100 miles to reach the nearest landings, and after being detained there a considerable time, exposed to the inclemencies of the weather, and often without any shelter but what was afforded to them by the coverings of their waggons, while their crops too were suffering greatly at home, were obliged at last to return without any fish. Some procured their Herrings, but not one in ten could get the Shad they wanted for their families. These Gill Nets, it is said, are fished almost exclusively by persons from the Eastward—a covetous people they must be:—they would take the bread from our mouths if they could do it—and they certainly will the fish if left to themselves. It is stated they had 500 vessels engaged in this business during the last season; such a number of Nets will form such an obsturction in the river as to keep back the Shad altogether, and by breaking the schools of Herrings will render even the catching of them uncertain. And what adds to our grievance, the fish that are caught in this manner are not disposed of to our citizens, but are cured on board the vessels that take them, and carried as an article of traffic to some other portions of the Union, or, perhaps, to foreign parts.

The people of the upper counties are peculiarly situated; living remote from any of the Rivers, with which nature has so bountifully watered our state, they have only an opportunity affordeded to them once a year of procuring fish of any kind for their families; and it rests with the Legislature to determine whether they shall be deprived of this right, attended as it is too, with great sacrifice, expense and trouble; and it must be known too to the members that may compose that body, that fish, from long use and custom, have become indispensably necessary to our families.

If any doubt should exist as to the facts herein stated, I have only to observe that they will be entirely removed by referring to any one from either of the upper counties, who attended at the landings either of the two last seasons, particularly the last.

Having said much more than I intended, I have only to call upon all those who feel an interest in this business, to lose no time in getting signatures to such a petition as I have recommended,—and also to see and converse upon the subject with such persons as they may think proper to send as delelgates to the next General Assembly; and I have also to request the favor of the editors of the Fredericktown papers, to give these remarks a place in their respective papers, that the subject may be fully brought before the people of the upper counties.

ROMULUS RIGGS,

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18

Gone to the Southward or Westward,

A YELLOW WOMAN, called Celia Detcher, in the 23d year of her age, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high—marks like moles on the right side of her face, which, with several letters on her left arm, were made with india ink. She is about four months gone in a state of pregnancy—followed her husband, Jim Clark, a yellow man, who was purchased from this place and taken away in company with a large number of slaves, about two weeks ago, by a man of the name of Basset. It is supposed they have gone to the westward: Celia was born free, and had with her a notarial certificate of her freedom, and description of her person. Her mother, the subscriber, is much afflicted by her manner of going away, and desires that any humane people who may chance to meet with her, will persuade her to return, being apprehensive that when she gets into a strange country, where she will be unknown and out of the reach of her friends and those who would be likely to protect her, attempts may be made by some avaricious and unprincipled persons, to deprive her of her liberty, and sell her for a slave. Should any such attempts be made, fifty dollars reward will be paid to any person who will communicate such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders, and the recovery of the woman.

A CAN OF GOOD ALE.

When distress and misfortune shall furrow the brow
Of the merchant, whose chink 'gins to fail,
I'll heed not the tears which so uselessly flow,
O'er a white flowing can of good ale.

When the lover breaks forth in the grief of his heart,
And compels me to hear his sad tale,
I'll pity his suff'rings, but brave the keen smart,
O'er a white flowing can of good ale.

When the farmer his losses shall sadly lament,
And the low price of wheat shall bewail,
How wisely I'll think my last shilling is spent
On a nice flowing can of good ale.

Though troubles on troubles shall stare me around,
Still new sweets every day I'll inhale,
When I raise to my lips the goblet full crown'd
With the generous drink of old ale.

O ale! how divine, how delicious thy joys,
When sorrow's keen shaft shall be hurl'd;
More sweet, more enticing than all the vain toys
Of this sad and disconsolate world.

Then boast not, ye friends of tobacco and snuff—
Segars and the like do not hail,
When the chor and the pinch and the sweet curling puff
Must yield to a can of good ale.

A GLASS OF GIN TODDY.

Our poets now-a-days,
Amuse themselves strange ways—
But that's not the case with every body:
There may be pleasure in a chor,
In snuff or a segar—
But there's nothing like a glass of gin toddy.

Should you be in the dumps,
Or your wife have the mumps,
Which frequently will happen to a body;
Let it be day or night,
And you want to set things right,
Just swallow a stiff drink of gin toddy.

If money you should owe,
And means to pay are slow,
Which too often 's now the case with a body;
To pass time, take a chor,
Take snuff or a segar—
But, above all, take a glass of gin toddy.

Or should you be in love,
And your mistress you can't move,
Which is very disagreeable to a body;
You may apply to snuff,
Or to any other stuff,
But there's nothing like a glass of gin toddy.

So come now, Mr. Quiz,
And show us your phiz,
And bring with you some other body—
That we and Orlando,
And Mr. Furioso,
May prove the virtue of a glass of gin toddy.

HYDROPHOBIA AMONG THE FOXES.

We have seen several gentlemen from the Northern Neck (between the rivers Potomack and Rappahannock) who state that the hydrophobia exists, at present, to an alarming degree among the foxes. In the county of Northumberland, upwards of forty persons have been bitten, who have been sent to the stone. A most remarkable circumstance attends the malady, which is, that the afflicted animal, in place of avoiding the human species, immediately makes towards them, and even enters houses in the middle of the day. We have seen one gentleman who states that a fox entered a house-yard in his presence, notwithstanding there were several dogs, and that the dogs, instead of attacking the animal, immediately retired, exhibiting great signs of fear. On another occasion, a fox made towards a boy who was walking along the road; the latter to avoid him, leaped into a waggon which was passing, but the fox pursued and bit him in several places.—Much injury has likewise been done to the cattle; and we are informed that the greatest uneasiness exists among the inhabitants, on account of this singular and extraordinary malady.

The pride of wealth is contemptible; the pride of learning is pitiable; the pride of dignity and rank is ridiculous; but the pride of bigotry is insuportable.

ALEXANDRIA:
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Friday, November 27, 1818.

On motion of Mr. Lowndes, the house resolved on an inquiry whether any, and what amendments ought to be made in the laws regulating the coins of the U. States and foreign coins.

An inquiry also was resolved upon, on the motion of Mr. Thomas M. Nelson, into the expediency of amending the act of last session, to do away the offices of surgeon general and assistant surgeon general, and substituting in their place two surgeon generals, corresponding to the present office of assistant surgeon general, with their present pay, emoluments, and duty, &c.

Mr. Spencer endeavored to have his resolution respecting the U. States bank, (offered by him, and laid on the table on Wednesday last) again taken up this day, and made a motion to that effect; on which the house divided, and there appeared for calling up the resolution 63—against it 72.

The Beaumairchais claim then was bro't up in a committee of the whole, general Smith in the chair, when Mr. Pitkin rose, and in a very able and argumentative speech, which lasted from twelve o'clock to four, presented a luminous exposition of that very singular transaction; his object being to prove that the money now claimed by the representatives of Beaumairchais, as having been lent by him to America, was in fact a gift from Louis XVI. (one million of it being supplied by the king of Spain) to the American congress, to aid them in overcoming Great Britain, but which the minister, Vergennes, employed Beaumairchais secretly to convey to America in supplies, in order to avoid the resentment of Britain, and a consequent premature breach with that government. Mr. Pitkin read from the report of the select committee a number of letters and other evidences to establish these facts, and after making a very deep impression on the house, closed, as I have told you, at about four o'clock; upon which the committee rose, reported progress and obtained leave to sit again; after which the house adjourned to Monday next.

Charleston, Nov. 23.

By the arrival yesterday afternoon, of the sch Eudoria, Capt. Vincent, in 7 days from the Havana, we received the papers of that city down to the 14th inst. They contain not a single item of importance. Our correspondent merely remarks that there is nothing new, and subjoins the following Prices Current of the 14th inst.

Ass. sugs. 18½ and 21½ a 18½ a 23½ reals.
Whites, alone, 22 a 24 reals.
Browns, 18½ a 19 reals.
Coffee, new, $28 a 31.

Savannah, November 20.

FIRE.

A few minutes before 12 o'clock, last night, this city was alarmed by the appalling cry of fire, the beating of the drum, and the ringing of the Exchange bell. A few of the most vigilant of our citizens repaired to the spot—the stores then in the occupation of Messrs Edes & Potter, and A. & S. Savage, on Knox's wharf. The flames had not yet made any formidable progress, and might have been suppressed by the wonted industry of the citizens, had not an ill-timed report of the stores' containing gunpowder, deterred those on the spot from rendering the assistance which the exigency of the case so peremptorily called for—thus it was suffered to continue its ravages where it originated. The night was calm, yet the devouring element, whose progress had not yet been effectually checked, soon consumed this, and communicated the flames to the adjacent buildings, a corner store where Messrs J. Battele & Co. had goods to a large amount; next the coopershop, occupied by Leonard Fash; and then the stores of Messrs. Williamson & De Villers, which were all entirely destroyed.—Here a stop was put to the march of this dreadful element, by the fire-proof stores of Messrs Johnson & Hills. Several large vessels moored to the wharves were saved by the fortunate circumstance of its being then high water, which enabled them to be removed from inevitable destruction. The stores destroyed were the property of Mr. Telfair, and Mr. Williamson. A great quantity of cotton, rice, sugar, &c. was thrown into the river. The adjacent wharves were filled with the goods removed from the stores east of the fire. But very little property was saved from those stores which were destroyed. The greatest sufferers are planters and others who had produce, &c. stored with Messrs Williamson and De Villers, J. Battelle & Co. Edes & Potter, and A. & S. Savage: the loss of the three last houses is computed at 55,000 dollars.

The steam-boat wharf, adjoining (to the west) the stores where the fire was first discovered, sustained no damage. The wind was light and from the west, which saved the stores belonging to the company, as well as the extensive amount of goods in them.

Mr. Allen R. Savage, of the house of A. & S. Savage is one of the sufferers, who has great claims to the public sympathy on this distressing occasion. But yesterday master of a competence, with the hope, through his characteristic industry, to add to his store, the fruits of three years arduous labor, which he had accumulated since his return from the coast of Africa, where he had been wrecked, with Captain Riley, finds himself to-day penuyless—of his little fortune, nothing remains but ashes. It is confidently hoped that the benevolent will not suffer so laudable an opportunity to pass by, of bestowing their mite to relieve a fellow creature and good citizen, and a worthy member of society.

How this dreadful calamity originated, it is impossible to ascertain; the general belief however, is, that it was the work of some incendiary.

GIBRALTAR MARKETS.

The editors of the Norfolk Beacon have been politely favored by a commercial friend, with the following notice of the Gibraltar market, on the 16th Oct. 1818.

"Our market, at this moment, promises very fair for North American produce; in fact, our market is quite destitute of flour. 2000 barrels superfine would now command $14 per bbl for the use of the town—rice is nominal at $7 per cwt; wax in demand at 4o a $45 per cwt. according to quality.—W. O. pipe staves, $75 per M.; barrel do D45 per M. Much old prime Kentucky tobacco has recently been placed at from 14 to D15 per cwt. That of the new crop, may be quoted at from 1o to D14 per cwt. but what is in favor of the article, the French government have advertised to purchase the coming month."

Exchange on London, 55d: Paris, 5f 3o: dollars, 2½ per cent premium.

Norfolk, November 25.

LATEST FROM GIBRALTAR.

By the schooner Charles K. Mallory, captain Middleton, in 28 days from Gibraltar, we have received the papers of that place to the 17th October: they contain not a word of news. Our very attentive correspondent there, to whom we have been indebted on so many former occasions, writes under date of October the 18th as follows: I am sorry I have no news to give you—in my last I informed you of the total change of Ministry in Spain, and of the banishment of the Secretaries of State, War and Finance, on account of extensive peculations and attempting to restore Charles VI. to the throne; also of the appointment of our particular friend El Marquis de Casa Yrugo as Prime Minister of State, which office he now fills, and from which we may soon expect something new, particularly with regard to our political differences with Spain.

"A discovery has recently been made of a deposit in the Bank of England, by the King of Spain, of 37½ millions of dollars, which has given rise to a variety of suggestions.

"Three Russian frigates arrived last week at Cadiz, as a present from the Emperor to his Catholic Majesty, perhaps by way of making amends for the rotten ships the former sold the latter last winter—We have yet to learn, however, whether the present be rotten or sound, and upon what terms the officers and crews are to get home.—If as the others did, it will turn out an Irish present indeed!

"Our squadron is at Syracuse."

The Keeper of the Reading Room Books is indebted to a commercial friend for the following Price Current at Bermuda, Nov. 4th—(retail.)

Superfine flour, per bl. $11½ a 12½; rye do 6½; cotn meal 6½; do per puncheon 32; corn per bushel 1 25 a 1 37½; do by the cargo 1 5; ship bread per bl 5; pilot do 6½; crackers half bl 5; per keg 1 a 1 25; peas per bushel 2 60 a 2 70; red oak staves 30 a 33; white oak do 40 a 45; cypress shingles 3½ a 5; sugar, good, per 100 lb 10 a 10½; rum W. I. per gal 65 a 68 cts; Jamaica do 85 a 90; molasses 50, scarce; coffee per 100 lbs $25 a 30, scarce, price almost nominal.—Exchange par or $450 per £100 sterling; dollars 6s 8d; govern. ment bills scarce, say from 2½ a 5 per cent.

Accounts from Jamaica of the 27th ult. received, via Bermuda, by a commercial gentleman at this place, state "American produce was becoming scarce there, since the cessation of direct trade; that southern red oak staves were 90 dollars per thousand, and white oak do 105; shingles, best cypress, 18—all in great demand, and are likely to advance."

The following is a copy of a private letter dated Aix-la-Chapelle, Oct. 3

"I use the utmost possible despatch in informing you, that the most important of the business of Congress is already terminated. Yesterday at noon, and at the end of the Fifth Conference, the Evacuation of France by the Allied troops was agreed upon. Count Caraman, the Ambassador of France at Vienna, was the bearer of this important intelligence to his Sovereign. Though I heard the news at an early hour this morning, I could not obtain any details or even learn the foundation on which it rested until now: and was unwilling to agitate the English public by vague rumours. The shortness of the time may plead my apology for sending you at present only a few particulars. The Act or Convention for the evacuation of France is not yet signed, but the following statement may be relied upon.—The allied troops are to leave France in the course of the present month, or early in the beginning of next, at such intervals and by such routes, as may be afterwards determined to be most convenient for all parties. The allied powers are perfectly satisfied with the present state of France, and the securities which she offers, in her internal condition, for the preservation of the general tranquility. They are likewise satisfied with the guarantees for the payment of the contributions: these contributions are all to be discharged in the course of nine months from the signature of the Treaty. The first instalment is to be 25 per cent. upon the whole sum; and the remainder is to be paid by equal instalments at the end of every two months.—the first payment of 25 per cent. will take place 3oth December of the present year The house of Baring & Co. supported by their friends or the other banking houses of Europe, is the security. Mr. Baring was yesterday called to a conference, and presented satisfactory guarantees. The distribution of the sums to be contributed I have not yet been able minutely to ascertain, but the following are the portions allotted to the greater powers:—

Russia will receive	48	millions of francs.
England	48	do
Austria about	40	do
The Netherlands	22	do
Bavaria	10	do

The remainder will be divided among the other States in proportion to their magnitude, their sacrifices, or exertions in the common cause. The details only of the great measure now remain to be fixed; and if the same frankness and good faith preside over the Councils of the Allied Ministers which have hitherto guided them, these cannot occupy a long time. Accordingly, the Duke of Richelieu expects to be able to return to Paris by the 15th instant. The Emperor of Russia and King of Prussia will proceed in the course of a fortnight from Aix-la-Chapelle, to review their troops; at Maubenge and Sedan. The former has given up his intention of visiting Paris, till his army is on its way out of France.—The Emperor of Austria returns about the same time (that is, the 15th inst.) to Vienna; so that this assembly of Monarchs, this representative Majesty of Europe, will have terminated in fifteen days a business which has engaged speculation and anxiety for three years; and will thus have shewn that the abouchements des Rios, with whatever jealousy they are viewed, are useful at least for expedition and despatch; while the solemnity which their union confers upon the acts to which they give their sanction, may be regarded as a great guarantee of their stability. This unanimity, in a great measure of policy, gives confidence in the general tranquility, and is calculated to dispel any other clouds that may partially darken the political horizon. As the Sovereigns met principally to decide on the affairs of France; their personal presence will be given no longer than they are terminated. The Ministers will remain here for some time longer, to settle some other matters of less importance; but as they are resolved not to open a door for general discussion, or to receive, like an Amphiotonic Council, the grievances of particular States, they have given it is said, positive information to Spain, that they do not mean to enter into the question of dispute between her and her Colonies. It is said, however, that Cevallus, the Spanish Minister at Vienna, is coming here to try the effect of his representations and persuasions. We hear, in a manner positive, that arrangements will be proposed by the Congress, to settle the difference between Bavaria and Baden. This has been obtained it is said, by the intervention of Austria. I cannot delay the bearer, to enter into further particulars."

Communicated for the Philadelphia Gazette,
By a gentleman who came passenger in the brig Juno, Cathell, from Pernambuco.

A law had passed in July last, to take effect in all the Brazil ports on the 1st Nov. following, laying a duty on all ships and cabin stores (24 per cent. custom house valuation)—the articles comprised in the above law are, ship's provisions, spare new spars, anchors, cables, rigging, sails, powder, liquors, and all private stores of the masters, supercargoes, and passengers, whether they are landed or not.

Produce at Pernambuco, during the summer, has been very scarce, the cause is principally owing to the country people being impressed into the military service, whilst bringing their produce into the city; press gangs, or detachments of soldiers had been sent into the interior, to press all persons able to bear arms. Any person brought up in a civilized part of the world, were they to be present, whilst the recruits were marched out for drill, would be under the impression that the hospitals had been emptied for a general cleaning; the recruits consist of the lame, the halt, and the blind—it is immaterial what ailment they have, soldiers they must be; if they do not enter their names voluntarily, as militia men, they are put into the regular service. It is generally the case that an order is issued for all persons to enroll themselves in a given time: not being sufficient for those in the country to have any intimation of, the first thing they know, is a party of the regular soldiers marching into their houses and dragging them off to Pernambuco, where after remaining a short time to be drilled, they are sent to garrison the different forts along the coast, and Islands, whilst these places are filled by the old Lisbon troops. The Alzadais, or judges, who were sent from Rio Janeiro to Pernambuco, to try the state criminals, had issued an order, on the 15th Sept. countermanding the order of pressing country people, after 15 days.

Three days previous to the Juno's sailing, a hot press had taken place to man the government vessels, which were to carry the state criminals to Bahia, to receive sentence. A list of upwards of four hundred persons, disaffected towards the present government had been given to the governor of Pernambuco; orders were issued out for their arrest, a number of them had been taken and a number had made their escape, principally in English vessels, as all other vessels undergo a strict examination previous to leaving the port, but more particularly the Americans, who have to put up with the grossest abuse and insult, being openly stigmatised with the names of pirates and thieves. A number of instances of their treatment to the Americans might be adduced, which would at one view clearly prove the fund of gratitude the Portuguese are possessed of, towards the people who are, and have been supplying them with the means of subsistence, during the former and present troubled state in which their country had been placed.

The Anniversary Meeting of the St. Andrew's Society, will be held at Mrs. M'Dougall's, on Monday, the 30th inst. at 10 A. M. Members are requested to be punctual in their attendance.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain; being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.
September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirious of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new, post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants; male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or

Gill Nets! Gill Nets!

To the Citizens of Washington, Frederick, and Montgomery counties.

AS the General Assembly of Maryland will sit in the course of a few weeks, I take the liberty of calling the attention of the people of the upper counties to the subject of Gill Nets; that all those who may agree with me in opinion, may unite in petitions to the Legislature to pass such laws as may effectually prevent the use of them hereafter in the Potomac. Since the introduction of these Nets into our waters, the people of the upper counties have experienced the most pernicious effects of this practice. It is a fact well known, that many persons at the last season, after leaving their homes, with their teams, at the most busy season of the year, and travelling, perhaps, from 50 to 100 miles to reach the nearest landings, and after being detained there a considerable time, exposed to the inclemencies of the weather, and often without any shelter but what was afforded to them by the coverings of their waggons, while their crops too were suffering greatly at home, were obliged at last to return without any fish. Some procured their Herrings, but not one in ten could get the Shad they wanted for their families. These Gill Nets, it is said, are fished almost exclusively by persons from the Eastward—a covetous people they must be:—they would take the bread from our mouths if they could do it—and they certainly will the fish if left to themselves. It is stated they had 500 vessels engaged in this business during the last season; such a number of Nets will form such an obsturction in the river as to keep back the Shad altogether, and by breaking the schools of Herrings will render even the catching of them uncertain. And what adds to our grievance, the fish that are caught in this manner are not disposed of to our citizens, but are cured on board the vessels that take them, and carried as an article of traffic to some other portions of the Union, or, perhaps, to foreign parts.

The people of the upper counties are peculiarly situated; living remote from any of the Rivers, with which nature has so bountifully watered our state, they have only an opportunity affordeded to them once a year of procuring fish of any kind for their families; and it rests with the Legislature to determine whether they shall be deprived of this right, attended as it is too, with great sacrifice, expense and trouble; and it must be known too to the members that may compose that body, that fish, from long use and custom, have become indispensably necessary to our families.

If any doubt should exist as to the facts herein stated, I have only to observe that they will be entirely removed by referring to any one from either of the upper counties, who attended at the landings either of the two last seasons, particularly the last.

Having said much more than I intended, I have only to call upon all those who feel an interest in this business, to lose no time in getting signatures to such a petition as I have recommended,—and also to see and converse upon the subject with such persons as they may think proper to send as delelgates to the next General Assembly; and I have also to request the favor of the editors of the Fredericktown papers, to give these remarks a place in their respective papers, that the subject may be fully brought before the people of the upper counties.
